The N. Y. State Di New York, Sept. 14.

The State Convention of the Democrats or the nomination for State officers will meet at Syracuse to-day. The principal in-terest in the proceeding will centre in the determination of the method of choosing Deldetermination of the method of choosing Belegates to the National Convention at Charleston. It is believed, however, that a considerable majority will be in favor of electing, the Delegates at once, instead of by the district system. The present State afficers, with the exception of Gideon B. Tucker, Secretary of State will probably be nominated. Mr. Tucker declines a re-nomination of the control of the cont and his place on the ticket will probably be filled by Floyd Jones, or Judge Scott.

STRACUSE, N. Y. Sept. 14.

The Democratic State Convention met There were two convention; soft, and hard, organized in one hall. Thos. G. Aloord ex-speakes of the assembly acting as chairman of the Wood convention, and H. John Striker of the Regency. A scene of great excitement prevails, and some terrible rows and fighting occurred among the shoul-der-hitters. Marshal Rynders was assaultder-hitters. Marshal Rynders was assaulted by a hard-bay. The soft convention finally adjourned, leaving the hards in possession of the hall. Fernando Wood made a bitter speech attacking the softs as disorganizers in leaving the convention. Motions were carried in choosing the regular committees. Mr. Striker, the hard chairman, was knocked off the platform. The hards finally adjourned, when Mr. Striker again took the chair, and organized the convention.
